THE RACE TO BE RUN AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY THIS AFTERNOON.

RICHARD CROKER'S COLT DOBBINS TO RUN AGAINST JAMES R. KEENE'S COLT DOMINO

James R. Keene's Domino and Richard Croker's Dobbins have been matched to meet to-day over faithless as to desert his honored leader in this emergency? Perish the thought! The braves ought to rally to the last man at Sneepshead Eay this on. It is unfortunate that Mayor Gilroy is any to bring out its full array. Not a leader Every Tammany man on the city pay-rolls, every Tammany contractor, every boss, big and little very election precinct captain, every alderman, police justice, every commissioner, yea, dump-trimmer, every street cleaner, who can get leave of absence, ought to go to Sheepshead Bay, and put all his money on Dobbins in order to prove his trust in the representative Tammany able and in the judgment of the Ahkoond of the Tammany Swat. He who dallies is a dastard, he the doubts is-condemned. At a crisis like this laggards are disloyal, sceptics are traitors and descriters are doomed. This is the time for Tammany to loot the betting ring as it has looted New-York City. Domine will undoubtedly be the favorite in the betting, as he has defeated Dobbins in every race in which the two colts have met. So the Tammany battalions have now the opportunity of their lives to spoil the bookmakers even as the Israelites of old spoiled the Egyptians.

THE NEGOTIATIONS FOR THE MATCH. After the talk on Tuesday of a possible match etween Domino and Dobbins, the Coney Island Jockey Club was naturally eager to bring about such a contest. Mr. Keene is of course confident that Domino is the best racehorse of his age in this country, as the son of Himyar and Mannie Gray has been victorious in every battle in which he has taken part. Mr. Keene was not looking for matches nor inviting challenges. It was not necessary for Domino to meet Dobbins in a match in order to set the seal on his fame. Domino had defeated Dobbins very easily in the Great American, Great Clipse and Great Trial stakes, and had taken first noney in the Futurity while Dobbins had run third. ino has many important engagements in rich stakes this year and next year, and he has a record inbroken triumphs. But Mr. Keene is a generous and chivalrous turfman, always ready to prothe highest interests of honorable sport knew that a match between Domino and Dobbins ould make a great stir among racing men, would stimulate popular interest, would add celebrity and distinction to the meeting of the Coney Island Jockey Club, of which he is one governors and stewards, and would ratify many thousands of people. Moreover, e was willing to prove to every one that he had licit faith in the ability of Domino to retain the crown of supremacy among American two-year-olds which he had gained and merited by his magnificent exploits. So he consented to accept the bold challenge of the Dobbins party.

Negotiations for the match were in progress uring a large part of yesterday afternoon. Samuet E. Rork, assistant secretary of the Coney Island lockey Club, exhibited marked diplomatic skill as an envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary in carrying propositions and protocols be-tween the high contracting parties. Everything was marked by the best of good humor and a cheerful readiness to make concessions on each side, Mr. Keene did not care to haggle or dis pute over anything. He was prompt to acquiesce every reasonable suggestion so that the lovers of the turf might enjoy an exciting match, and the club might add a feature of the highest interest to its programme of entertainment. Mr. Croker at himself in the hands of his friends. Michael F put himself in the hands of his friends, Airchaef P.
Dwyer and Philip J. Dwyer. He told them that he would agree to anything which they thought proper, and the match was really made by the Dwyers on one side and Mr. Keene on the other. Croker, the owner of Dobbins, of course signed the papers, as did Mr. Keene.

THE DETAILS OF THE CONTEST.

The terms of the match are as follows: Domino and Dobbins are matched for $10,000 a side, $2,500 forfelt. The Coney Island Jockey Club is to add programme, but the condition of "good day and track" is added. Fortunately there is every reason to expect that the sky will be clear, and that the track will be dry and fast. Each colt is to carry 118 pounds, the regular stable weight for two-yearolds. Taral is to ride Domino and Sims is to ride

The papers were signed by Mr. Keene and Mr. Croker at 6:10 p.m., some time after the last race had been run. While the subject was still under discussion, and Mr. Keene and his friends were talking in the pleasantest way about it with Mr. Croker and the Dwyers and their friends, the groups were watched with excited attention by eager spectators. Mr. Keene held some consultations with his trainer, William Lakeland, and Mr. Croker and the Dwyers repeatedly sought the advice of their trusted stable experts. Not long before the match was signed and scaled, a friend of Mr. Croker came up to the Tammany Maharajah, who was near the paddock, nanded him a roll of bills as thick as a big brick. Mr. Croker did not even look at the roll, which he thrust carelessly into one of the pockets of his trousers, New-York's leading statesmen look FIFTH RACE-Sching. Futurity course, with contempt upon such mere dross, but in order to show how little they think of it they get hold of as much of it as they can.

TAMMANY'S DEATHLESS DEVOTION. Possibly this thick roll represented Mr. Croker's winnings on the races yesterday. Probably the whole of the roll will be wagered on Dobbins to bent Domino to-day. However that may be, no Tammany general, colonel, major, captain, lieuten ant, sergeant, corporal or private ought to abandon his honored leader to-day, when he is heroically battling with the bookmakers. This is the time for every true son of Tammany to exhibit his fidelity and devotion. Mr. Croker has made nearly all of these prodigal sons rich, and the bugie call of duty is loud and clear. If they don't flock to Mr. Croker's standard to-day, and make Dobbins the favorite over Domino, they will betray a lack of courage of loyalty and steadfast trust, which has not been characteristic of Tammany in the past. Every one of them should hug to his heart the inspiration that he is following his chosen champion and chieftain, and that his obligation not to falter or break ranks until the signal for retreat is sounded, is of the strongest sort.

The Tammany charge upon the betting ring to day may fairly be expected to resemble in gallantry and heroism the immortal charge at Balaklava or the self sacrificing Six Hundred, of whom Tennyson

Theirs not to make reply

Thurs not to reason why. Theirs but to do and die.

That is the true Tammany spirit, and even if Dobbins should be defeated, the Tammany braves would feel the consolation of an approving selfrespect. A touch of true nobility of spirit would comfort them, if they should go down in disaster in following the standard of their leader. Like the noble Six Hundred, who were ordered to attack the Russian battery, our Tammany friends may no they are expected to back Dobbins against Domino, but they cannot escape the con viction that it is their duty to do this, and to-day, as bookmakers to the right of them, bookmaker to the left of them, bookmakers in front of them, kmakers in rear of them voiley and thunder, cheerfulness and a general smile

A CONTEST OF IMPORTANCE AND MERIT. All jesting apart, the Domino-Dobbins match is of rare importance and excellence, and James R. Keene, Richard Croker, Michael F. Dwyer and Philip J. Dwyer have acted in a gen-erous, manly and honorable way in arranging it. Much honor and credit are due to the officers of the Coney Island Jockey Club for providing so atthe Coney Island Jockey Club for providing so attractive and exciting a contest for the enjoyment of the public. The match will be run as the fifth race, and this addition will provide a programme of seven races of much variety, which will include the Twin City Handicap, at a mile and a quarter, the Reapers Stakes for three-year-olds, and the Sapphire Stakes for two-year-olds. In these races a number of well-known horses will be seen.

In the discussion yesterday over the details of the meeting of Domino and Dobbins, it was suggested that Senator Grady, the winner of the Junior Champion Stakes, micht come in also, and a special sweepstakes for the three colts be run. But Matthew Byrnes was unwilling to run Senator Grady agairst Domino, except at an advantage of five pounds in the weights, and, moreover, he wanted a week in which to get Senator Grady rendy for the race. Mr. Keene, Mr. Croker and the Dwyers wanted the affair settled without delay, as both Domino and Dobbins have important stake engagements.

INCIDENTS OF YESTERDAY'S CONTEST. The weather yesterday was faultless for racing favorites out of six were successful.

Four favorites out of Scholars and Four conditions of the first race let in Stonenell at so light a weight that only Loantaka and Sir Matthew ran against him. Betting on the race was chiefly for the place between Loantaka and Sir Matthew. Stonenell was the winner, Loantaka second and Sir Matthew last.

In the Flight Stakes the conditions put only the pounds on Dr. Hasbruck, and owners and trainers, with one accord, began to make excuse. Only Defareflia ran against the agile Doctor, and she was no match for him. Byron McClelland had a profitable afternoon. He won the second race with the favorite. From Dance, the Belles Stakes with an outsider, Queenlike E, and the afth race with the favorite. It would be difficult to discover anywhere two fillies cursed with worse tempers than those of Stonenelle and Lady Rosemary Both are shrews and viragoes of an extreme type, and each needs a Petruchto to tame her. It was necessary to lead Lady Rosemary all the way to the post for the Belles Stakes, and both she and Stonenella acted like fiends. Lady Rosemary was not damagerous in the race. Stonenelle was the favorite, but stopped badly in the final half furiong and came in second. Probably both she and Lady Rosemary had wasted much of their speed in their wanton freaks before the start.

YONKERS AN ITALIAN LABORER KILLS A COMPANION. Rafello Lesso, an Italian laborer, employed a short distance from Bryn Mawr Park, with gang of Italians, building a pipe line to connect the Pocantico waterworks with the Tarrytown and Mount Vernon waterworks, was stabbed and killed by Angelo Calabraese, a fellow laborer, at 8 of clock Tuesday night. Lesso was the foreman of the gang and Calabraese a watchman on the works. The murderer has an ugiy disposition and had quarrelled with a number of Italians during the ay, openingly boasting that he would kill a man before night.

After the men had quit work there was a warrel, and loud words were exchanged between esso and Calabraese, when the latter was heard o say: "I will do you, and not with my fists The words had barely been spoken when Cala-
